

If my state takes the initiative to protect my quiet enjoyment and restricts unwanted telemarketers from calling my home, the Federal Government should not interfere. NJ's Do Not Call legislation should remain in force. Save the taxpayers daughter.